Item no. 13 Report of Activities for 2022 - 2023 by the Secretary, Dr. Rajendra Sankpal.

It is my proud pleasure to write the MOGS secretarial report for the year 2022-2023. MOGS began its new managing committee year in April 2022 under the able leadership of President Dr Niranjan Chavan and the new office bearers and the managing committee members. The year remained extraordinarily productive and vibrant in terms of academic activities, social charitable activities of women's health and administrative working of the society. During the entire year the whole team of MOGS put an immense efforts to conduct the scientific meetings and deliberations. Highlights of the activities are 6 major conferences, 7 teaching workshops focusing obstetric skills. Endoscopic Surgeries, Infertility & Oncology, 39 webinars and outreach programmes, 6 N A Purandare Postgraduate Teaching programs and 5 social activities focusing the issues of women's health. The major conferences had participation of not only our own academicians from MOGS, AMOGS, FOGSI but also faculties from FIGO, RCOG. SAFOG, UNICEF thus further enhancing MOGS reputation globally. This year MOGS conducted BMD detection camps at 37 centres in one day and Menstrual Hygiene camp at 24 centers in Mumbai on one day. N A Purandare teaching programs and Nandita Palshetkar postgraduate CME have immensely benefited postgraduate students not only from Mumbai but all across the nation. All our managing committee members and office bearers worked hard to facilitate MOGS activities. Their valuable inputs during the 12 managing committee meetings made appreciable contributions to MOGS activities throughout the year. We got opportunity to thank our past presidents and we could able to felicitate the past presidents. I am very happy to share that this year MOGS received 'AMOGS M V

Chitale Best Society Award' & FOGSI's Dr Sadhana Desai population stabilization promotion award. I sincerely appreciate the hard work of entire managing committee under the leadership of Dr Nirranjan Chavan for making MOGS once again the Best Society. I wish to thank MOGS trustees for their guidance. We appreciate all MOGS members for their support in all our academic activities.

Item no. 14 Address by the Outgoing President, Dr. Nirranjan Chavan.

Respected MOGS Trustee Dr Shyam Desai Sir, Dear Rajendra, Geetha, Anahita and my dear MOGS members.

Team MOGS 2022-2023 has had a very fruitful year. I had the support of MOGS Secretary, Dr Rajendra Sankpal and MOGS Treasurer Dr Geetha Balsarkar, entire Managing Council, Office Bearers and Youth Council members. My MOGS Theme for this year was "Vision for HER: Heal Her, Educate Her, Respect Her" as I wanted to work towards improving every aspect of women's health. I hope I have succeeded in achieving my goal. We have strived to bring MOGS respect and recognition on a national as well as international platform. During this year I had 6 MOGS conferences, 7 Workshops, 39 webinars and Outreach Programs, 6 Dr NA Purandare Teaching Programs, 5 social events and 4 MOGS newsletters.

Our first conference, MOGS-HER World Congress on Labor and Delivery was held on 16th and 17th of April 2022 at Hotel Sofitel BKC. It was preceded by the 1st ever AI enabled hands on Obstetric Skills and Drills workshop on 15th April 2022 at LTMMC hospital with AI mannequins by Laerdal, Norway. This conference had 3 Orations by esteemed Dr Jeanne Conry, FIGO President, Dr S Shanthakumari, FOGSI President & Dr PK Shah, Past President FOGS & MOGS, on unique topics, Logomachy which was a debate on the various obstetric topics. Mr Sharman Joshi, the film actor was the Chief Guest along with FIGO President Dr Jeanne. This conference had 18 keynote addresses and international speakers from FIGO, WHO, RCOG, RCPI, JHPIEGO & ISUOG organizations.

Our next conference was the MOGS World Congress on Anemia (WCA 2022), a virtual conference on 7th May 2022. It had participation from International & National speakers from FIGO, SAFOG, IAP, NNF, API, RCOG and many other organizations. Dr Anne Beatrice Kihara, FIGO President Elect from Kenya was the Chief Guest along with Dr Conry as Guest of Honour. It also had lectures by Dr Prof Omondi Ogotu from the University of Nairobi and Prof Anat Gafter-Gvili from Rabin Medical Centre, Israel among other international and national speakers.

The World Menstrual Hygiene Day was celebrated on 28th May, 2022 by MOGS members at 24 hospitals, small and big nursing homes and private hospitals by talks on menstrual hygiene among young adolescent girls and women.

MOGS had organized excellent program for the World Population Day CME and PPH International Conclave. World population Day was celebrated on 11th July 2022 where we had the honour of having Dr RP Soonawala and Dr Usha Krishna as Chief Guests.

Professor Sir Sabaratnam Arul Kumaran our international faculty and Past President of FIGO and RCOG enthralled the audience with his talk on PPH revisited – Challenges and Solutions in PPH at the International PPH Conclave held on 23rd July 2022. Dr Rajendra Saraogi, our MOGS member spoke on influencing factors for the prevention of PPH. Both were awarded the MOGS Global Excellence Awards. MOGS celebrated World breastfeeding week by conducting several programs like MOGS FOGSI SAFOG UNICEF CME on breastfeeding and World Breastfeeding Week Poster and Slogan Competition. Many MOGS members and non-MOGS members contributed in large numbers.

MOGS conducted the SHARP Global Gynecology conference on the 3rd and 4th of September 2022 at the St. Regis Hotel, Mumbai. A total of 16 National & international organizations' faculty were involved. There were 3 pre-congress workshops conducted at various centres in Mumbai on 2nd September 2022. The conference was attended by nearly 500 people with varied interests and age groups that included residents of postgraduate colleges to consultants. There were 23 talks, 12 panel discussions, 31 Keynote Addresses, 3 debates and 2 orations. The MOGS Bhanuben Nanavati
